

JULIET P. KALIB, ESQ.
KALIB & KALIB

Juliet Kalib is a trusts and estates attorney who focuses her practice on estate planning and estate administration.

Prior to starting her own firm, Juliet worked in the trusts and estates departments at the law firms of Schlesinger Gannon & Lazetera LLP and Hartman & Craven LLP. She also practiced in the public sector in the Law Department of the New York County Surrogate's Court, handling a variety of cases, including arts-related trusts and estates matters.

Juliet has spoken to a variety of groups about estate planning and is a regular guest lecturer at Christie's Education, New York University's SCPS program in Art Business and its Financial Planning Capstone course.

She is the President of the Estate Planning Council of New York City, a member of the New York City Bar Association, an Advisory Council member of Total Alignment Wealth Advisors and a Business Partner of Tanglewood. She has also served as a member of the New York Regional Board of Hadassah and worked with the Arts Students League Exhibition Outreach Program.

She has a B.A. in Art History from Emory University, a J.D. from Boston College Law School and an M.A. in Arts Administration from Columbia University.

Juliet and her sister, Susan Kalib, formed Kalib & Kalib in 2014. They are based in New York City.
